Although a search may not be required in order to issue a policy, you should consider if the results may be useful to your client.

You must advise Chicago Title of any adverse matters that were revealed by any required searches, if any of the searches were not conducted, or if the search is older than what is required above. Failure to conduct a required search may result in an exception being listed on the policy.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is vacant land treated differently?

An owner's policy will contain an exception as to the failure of the land to include a single family dwelling or condominium unit.

What endorsements are available for non-urban properties?

The Septic System Endorsement is automatically attached to all policies for properties that are serviced by a septic system – no additional questions or searches are required. The Water Potability Endorsement is attached to all lender policies where water comes from a non-municipal source. The endorsements should be consulted for specific coverage.

Is a Real Property Report (RPR) required?

No, full survey coverage is provided with every residential policy. If an RPR is available and discloses defects, then they must be brought to the attention of Chicago Title so they can be underwritten accordingly. Although an RPR is not required, it may be useful to obtain depending the circumstances of the transaction.

Is a Survey required?

Since a survey is required for registration purposes in Newfoundland and Labrador, we ask that you upload the copy of the survey you will be attaching to the deed or mortgage.

What is the Transaction Protection Endorsement?

The Transaction Protection Endorsement may be purchased as part of the title insurance policy for an owner and/or lender and protects against loss or damage relating to errors or omissions of the solicitor in the residential real estate transaction. The endorsement should be consulted for the scope of coverage.

What do you consider a private lender and why is there an exception on policies for private lenders?

We consider a private lender to be any lender which is not a chartered bank, trust company, credit union, insurance company or mortgage finance corporation. We expect funds from a transaction for a private lender to be disbursed directly to the borrower or to one of the permitted parties listed in our exception. By following our private lender instructions you are helping protect your client and yourself, indirectly, against fraud.

Do you insure Indigenous lands?

Yes! We have additional questions that must be answered and an underwriter will contact you for copies of the title search, the agreement of purchase and sale (if a purchase), the head lease and any subleases. Additional premiums apply for Indigenous lands.
